Dane County Fair to Crown Droster Fairest at 2019 Breakfast on the Farm

MADISON, WIS. – A public crowning of Heidi Droster of Mount Horeb, the 2019 Dane County Fairest of the Fair, will be at the Dane County Breakfast on the Farm to be held Saturday, June 8 at 9:00 am at Klondike Farms, 4562 State WI 92, Brooklyn, WI. The public is invited to attend the presentation of Heidi who was selected for this role at an April selection event.

Heidi is the daughter of Greg and Sandy Droster. She is currently a student at the University of Wisconsin – Madison studying kinesiology. She has been involved in the Dane County Fair all her life and as an exhibitor the last eight years.

“We grow through learning, and being Fairest of the Fair gives me the opportunity to share my knowledge of agriculture and youth projects with others as well as continue to learn and grow myself through this public relations experience,” stated Droster. “The Dane County Fair is an important part of my life and I want to show the public all the amazing youth projects, food vendors, carnival rides and other partners that make this Fair so special.”

In this role, Droster will attend community events promoting the upcoming Dane County Fair, July 18-21 as well as additional events across the state. She will make daily appearances at the fair, meeting fairgoers, presenting awards to youth exhibitors and participating in various activities. Community members can keep up with her year as Dane County Fairest of the Fair by following the hashtag #DCF19 or by liking the Dane County Fairest of the Fair Facebook page.

In the heart of Madison, the Dane County Fair is “Taking Tradition to new Heights”. The Fair is home to free concerts, stunt shows, animals, thousands of youth projects, a carnival and all the best fair foods. With a 169-year history, the Dane County Fair will once again be held at the Alliant Energy Center, July 18-21, 2019.
